Truxton Capital Advisors Expands Team

NASHVILLE, TN, November 19, 2024 – Truxton Capital Advisors (TCA) is pleased to announce a series of leadership appointments to support its continued growth and strategic direction. Peter Deming, CPA has been named Managing Director and will lead the TCA team in expanding client relationships, executing strategic engagements, and positioning the business for further success.

Joining Philip Skipp in the Vice President role, Sam Carden, CFA, CAIA and Sam Scott, CFA have been promoted to Vice President, and Vice President, Portfolio Manager, respectively. These promotions recognize their valuable contributions to TCA and their ongoing commitment to delivering excellent results for our clients.

Additionally, Duncan McGinn has assumed the role of TCA Analyst and Commercial & Industrial (C&I) Portfolio Manager. His focus will be on delivering in-depth market analysis and portfolio management, further strengthening our client offerings.

“We are thrilled to have Peter as Managing Director and to recognize the hard work and dedication of Sam Carden, Sam Scott, and Duncan in their new roles,” said Drew Mallory, Senior Managing Director of TCA and Chief Fiduciary Officer. “Peter’s strategic insight, deep industry experience, and proven ability to build strong client relationships will be invaluable as we take TCA to the next level. Under his leadership, and with the talent of our team, we look forward to enhancing the value we bring to our clients, shareholders, and partners.”

“Peter’s twenty-five years of experience brings a strong track record in strategic thinking, organizational development, and hands-on client engagement,” said Andrew May, Vice Chairman. “His leadership, combined with the expertise of the newly promoted team members, reflects TCA’s commitment to building a future-focused, client-centered business.”
